

2019 The Joint Training Program for Chinese-Arabic Translators

In order to promote the bilateral relations between China and the League of Arab States and train qualified Chinese-Arabic translators, the Ministry of Education and the Ministry of Foreign Affairs have established "The Joint Training Program for Chinese-Arabic Translators". The program is aimed at the staff working for the international exchange and cooperation and other related departments from government sectors, enterprises and public institutions in the League of Arab States with a professional background in Chinese language and literature, and fresh graduates who wish to pursue a career in Chinese-Arabic translation.

Participants of the program will receive one year of training at Shanghai International Studies University. Courses will cover the knowledge and use of Chinese language and the comprehension and expression of government affairs in Chinese. Upon completion, participants will receive a qualification in Chinese-Arabic translation and pass the HSK level 6 test. Graduates will keep in close contact with the Secretariat of Arab League after their graduation.

Applicants are all required to attend the entrance exam organized by Shanghai International Studies University. The entrance exam includes 2 parts: oral (oral translation and interpretation) and written (Chinese-Arabic translation) test given by professional examiner. The final admission is based on the result of the oral and written tests.
